

Water Resource Development for Indigenous Livelihood Restoration and Sustainable Ecology in Lanta Island
Project Description	As a continuation phase of Tsunami Recovery, the project helps the indigenous communities in Hua Laem, Sanga-U, Je Li and Koh Por on the Lanta Island to be able to plan, implement, operate and manage water resource development system that alleviates water shortage problem in their villages as well as establishing community-based natural resources and environmental management mechanism to demonstrate sufficiency economy livelihood and income generation activities.
Project Document	The project is related to Outcome 1 in the Country Programme Action Plan: Efficient community network in sustainable use of local natural resources and energy with engagement in policy and decision making processes. For the full project document, please go to http://www.undp.or.th/resources/cpandpd.html
Corporate thematic area	Environment and Energy
Status of the project	On-going
Location	Lanta Island, Krabi Province, South of Thailand
Period of the project	(Thailand Project) May 2006 –December 2007
Name of UNDP Programme Officer	Ms Phansiri Winichagoon
Partners on the ground	Community Organization Development Institute (CODI) and Chumchonchai Foundation
Major sources of financing	United Nations Foundation (UNF), The Coca Cola Company (TCCC): USD 274,000
Delivery in previous fiscal years	(2006) 1.08% Note: The actual expenditure against the May-Dec 06 advance was reported in Feb 2007 and, therefore, is not shown in the previous fiscal year (2006)'s delivery report.
Interim results and evaluation reports	N/A
Additional available information	-