

(as of 30 December 2008)

Enhanced GFATM (Global Fund to fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria) Grant implementation in Thailand through local partner capacity building and improved multi-sectoral local response programming for AIDS

Project Description	The project aims to develop a model for improving local responses to HIV/AIDS, with a focus on a decentralized approach that brings together many sectors, and that builds capacity at the local level.
Project Document	This project falls under Outcome 3 of the UN Partnership Framework with the Royal Thai Government: By 2011, Thailand ensures increased access to and utilization of comprehensive of HIV prevention, treatment, care and support services. UNDP PROGRAMME COMPONENT 4: Responding to HIV/AIDS OUTCOME 1: Enhanced broad-based policy dialogue and analysis. . OUTCOME 2 Increased capacity for a decentralized and multi-sectoral response OUTCOME 3 Stigma and discrimination on the basis on HIV/AIDS status is reduced For the full project document, please go to http://www.undp.or.th/resources/cpandpd.html
Corporate thematic area	Democratic Governance
Status of the project	On-going
Location	Lampang and Nakorn Phanom provinces

Period of the project	9 January 2008 – 31 March 2009
Name of UNDP Programme Officer	Ms. Tongta Khiewpaisal
Partners on the ground	National Executing Agency: Department of Disease Control under the Ministry of Public Health
Major sources of financing (Through joint programming)	PAF fund: USD 305,771.76 UNAIDS: 10,000 UNDP TRAC fund: USD 10,000 UNICEF: USD 10,000
Delivery in previous fiscal years	( 2008) 58%
Interim results and evaluation reports	Report on Assessment of Capacity Development and Skills Building Needs of Public and Civil Society Implementing Partners in the Local Response to AIDS is available.
Additional available information	